MEMBERS

Section 1. Classes of Members - There shall be, at this time, only three classes of membership in this corporation. These classes are: 1) Full membership 2) Associate membership, 3) Family, and Distinguished.

Full membership is open to all licensed amateurs. Family membership is open to licensed hams who are the spouse or child of a full member living at the same address. If the full member is a minor, then family membership is open to licensed hams who are the parent or sibling of the full member living at the same address. Associate membership is open to all other persons interested in Amateur Radio communications. Distinguished membership shall be accorded to any existing LVRAC member who has continuously maintained their LVRAC membership for a consecutive five (5) year period immediately preceding their seventieth (70th) birthday, and who has attained the age of seventy (70) years, and any and all dues which would be subsequently due from such member are thereafter waived.

Full membership includes all corporation privileges as well as the right to vote in any and all elections and to stand for and hold corporate office. Associate membership includes all corporate privileges except the right to vote in any elections or to hold any corporate office. Family members may achieve Full Membership by independently paying the dues required of Full Members.

Applicants whose applications are approved shall become members of the corporation upon payment of any required dues.

Section 2. Termination of Membership - The Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of two thirds (2/3) of all the members of the Board, may suspend a member for cause after an appropriate hearing. A majority vote of the Full Members in quorum at any regularly scheduled meeting will then be required to terminate the suspended member. Termination of the membership of any member, who shall be in default in the payment of dues, will be in accordance with Article X, Section 3.

Section 5. Resignation - Any member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary, but such resignation shall not relieve any member so resigning of the obligation to pay any dues, assessments, or other charges accrued and unpaid.

Section 6. Reinstatement - Upon written request signed by a former member and filed with the Secretary, the Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of two thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board, may reinstate such former member to the membership on such terms as the Board of Directors may deem appropriate. A member who suspended or terminated for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by payment of such dues.

Section 7. Transfer of Membership - Membership in the corporation is not transferable or assignable.
